Executive summary

The four-year term of LSBU's Chancellor, Sir Simon Hughes, comes to an end in July 2022.

It is generally agreed that Sir Simon has been an asset to the University in numerous ways – participating in University events such as graduations, contributing advice and direct support in external negotiations and fundraising, representing the University at external events and being accessible to and supportive of our students, interacting in particular with our Students' Union officers. Sir Simon has expressed a willingness to continue as Chancellor and it is proposed that we thank him for his generous service and formally ask him to undertake a further four year term from 1 August 2022 to 31 July 2026.
